Successful Practices in Poll Worker Recruiting, Training and Retention

The United States Election Assistance Commission (EAC) is an independent bipartisan commission created by The Help America Vote Act (HAVA) of 2002. It is charged with administering payments to States and developing guidance to meet HAVA requirements, adopting voluntary voting system guidelines, and accrediting voting system test laboratories and certifying voting equipment.
EAC also serves as a national clearinghouse and resource of information regarding election administration.
